

Bounthong Keohanam

Urban and Municipal development, Environment, Civil work, Solid waste and Sewage Expert

Position: Senior Consultant

Nationality: Lao

Education and training:

- M. Sc. (construction engineering), former Soviet Union- 1981- 1986
- Environmental Engineering direct study (AIT, Bangkok, Thailand).
- International Course on Urban Drainage in Developing countries (AIT, Bangkok, Thailand).
- International Training Course on Dwelling Construction Technology (Nanjing, China).
- Environmental Technology Assessment for Decision-makers in Southeast Asia (Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia)
- International Training Course on Municipal Sewerage and Waste Water Treatment (AIT, Bangkok, Thailand)
- Third Country Training Programme on Urban Environmental Management (Singapore)
- Industrial & hazardous Waste management course (Singapore)
- Professional Development Programme on Project Monitoring and Evaluation (AIT, Bangkok, Thailand)
- Training on Communication and Community Awareness (Khonkaen, Thailand)
- English Language Course (Auckland, New Zealand)
- ASEAN Regional Workshop on Municipal Solid Waste Management (Angeles City, Philippines)
- Thirtieth International Training Course in Regional Development (Nagoya, Japan)
- Solid Waste Management (Gothenburg, Sweden)
- Policy on Urban and Regional Development (Seoul, Korea)

Key Qualification

Mr. Bounthong Keohanam, member of Lao Architect and Engineer, is a 23 years long experience senior consultant in the fields of civil work, urban development, municipal environment and road construction, sewage and waste and rain water drainage, municipal solid waste management.

He has worked with various national and international projects, as well as for state and private enterprises in Laos.